

SMALL BUSINESS

Spotlight

[Chicken Annie's Girard]

Chicken Annie's Girard is a homestyle restaurant featuring traditional Southeast Kansas Fried Chicken and more. Located four miles west of the K47/69 junction, the restaurant draws people from across the four state area and beyond.

Years in Business: Opened in 1971. Purchased by Bob and Carolyn Zagonel in 1984.

Number of employees: 30

Key Innovations: Remains open for socially distanced dine-in and curbside pick-up upon request. "Birthday Club" offers patrons a free meal coupon.

"The personal service we give our customers allows us to really get to know them. They have become more of an extended family."

| Carolyn Zagonel